Stewardship Reflections

February 23, 2025 –
7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, taken from the sixth chapter of Luke, Jesus offers a very challenging, seemingly impossible approach to daily life. "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak do not withhold even your tunic.... Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back."

It seems so unfair. Unless, that is, we look at this way of life from a stewardship point of view. Then, not only does it seem doable (though challenging), but it also actually makes perfect sense. A steward understands clearly that all he has, and all that he is a gift from God given to him from an unfathomable abundance of love. This changes everything!

This means that "my" cloak, "my" tunic, "my" money and "my" time – all of it ultimately belongs to God. He has entrusted these things to each of us in love to use for His purposes and His glory.

Pro Life

February 23 -It's easy to love life when it's beautiful and perfect. But the real test of our love is to love, respect, and defend all human life from beginning to end; young and old; born and unborn.
